canon.fernando@icloud.
com
Prague.

E-catalog Application

E-catalog is a fantastic app that helps you pre visualizing almost any product you could find online. This manual contains a guide for the user.
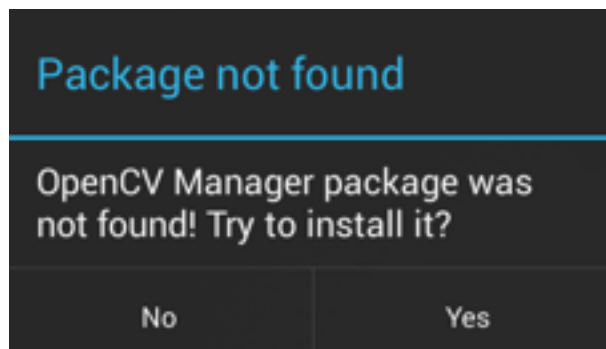

Installation

Available on Play Store

Possible link to the store

Install OpenCV manager

E-Catalog uses OpenCV plugin to perform complex image processing algorithms. This plugin is necessary for the application to run. The plugin will automatically install, the user will only need to confirms the request presented by the application.

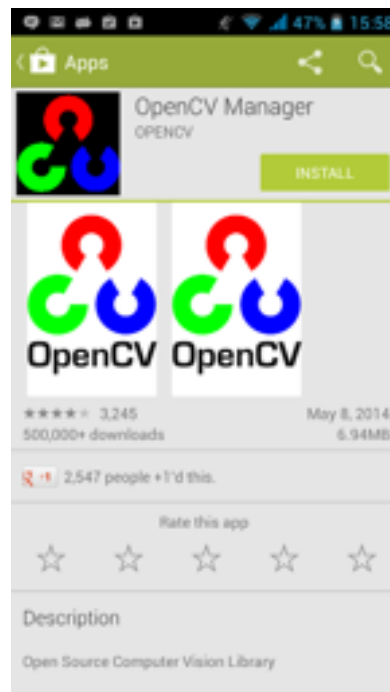

Touch on "Yes" to confirm the download of OpenCV manager

Download OpenCV from the app store.

Once downloaded you are ready to use E-catalog

Utilization Guide
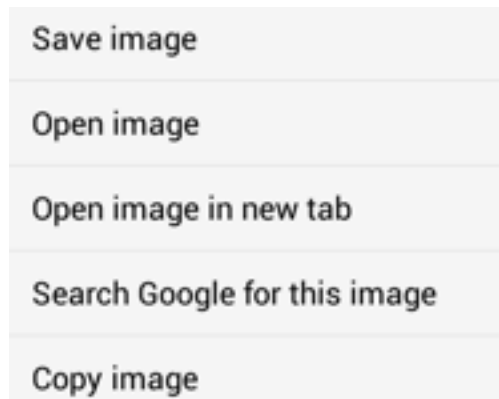

Usage:
Click (touch) any image on the list to visualized on the camera.

How to add new Images
Select images from your favorites brands by copy them with to your phone.
Press on the images during a couple of seconds util you get this message:

Save image

Open image

Open image in new tab

Search Google for this image

Copy image

Chose copy image an the image will be automatically downloaded by E-catalog.

Also a Notification will be shown in the notification area:

How to delete images:
Select Edit and click on the trashcan icon to remove the image from your application.